

Nigel Green

International Physical Literacy Association

North Western Countries Physical Education Association – the UK

Nigel Green is currently a physical education and physical literacy consultant having been a Senior Lecturer in Physical Education at Liverpool John Moores University from 2009 - 2018. He taught physical education in four secondary schools for 29 years prior to this, during this time he led three departments, a faculty (including PE, Art, Music, Dance and Drama) and a networked community. Nigel has been involved in training teachers and providing professional development for over thirty years, in the UK and more recently in India, Brazil, Taiwan and other countries worldwide. He is currently Chair of the IPLA and Vice Chair of the NWCEA. Nigel enjoys golf, tennis, table tennis, triathlon, mountain climbing and any other physical activities that are available.

My Topics for the 19th International Teaching Week:

- 1) Planning PE Provision with a Physical Literacy Focus
- 2) Teaching Strategies Armoury (practical session – badminton)
- 3) Assessing Progress in PE using Core Tasks (practical session – volleyball)
- 4) A Practical Introduction to Physical Literacy through Dance and Small Games